Lawyers for life...

We have put this together for you so you can see just how different we are to other firms of solicitors.

We care. We care about your personal and professional lives and we're here to help. We want to make your lives fairer, smoother, less stressful and more rewarding.

You'll find out how we get legal matters sorted, and what sort of work we're particularly good at.

Hopefully when you've had a good look through, you'll know who to come to when you or your business needs the kind of legal support that gets you the right result.

We are committed to you, and we always provide a free initial consultation.

Please contact us, then we can say hello properly...

the real world

APPROA

What we're saying here is that if your business or you personally need expert legal advice, we know what's what. Which means we can give you a bit of an edge.

Sure, there are plenty of clever lawyers around to take your pick from. But there's clever-clever and there's savvy-clever. We're not show-off smart, we're do-whatever-it-takes-to-get-the-right-result smart. And you can be sure that if the going gets tough, we'll be the last man standing.

We're also local. That matters. It means we know where you're coming from and what you're up against. It means we're always on hand to talk. And it means we talk your language. We tell it straight. No surprises. No false expectations. Just top-notch expertise that'll get you where you want to be.

The right person does the job

Our people specialise in specific areas of the law. We don't have jacks-of-all-trades. We have experts. Because we want to give you best advice, you'll deal with a lawyer who specialises in what you need sorting and in your sort of business.

We keep you posted

You need to know what's going on, even when nothing is – sometimes deliberately. So instead of having to guess what we're up to, we'll tell you. Regularly. We appreciate that even a quick phone call or short email can go a long way.

No surprises

All too often, the biggest surprise you get from a law firm is the bill. Not at BTMK and Marcus Baum. We give you an upfront estimate or fixed fee, and we'll tell you straightaway if there's likely to be any variation.

We tell it like it is

You need to know the facts and understand what our advice means, so you can make the best decision. We cut the flannel and give you legal advice coupled with common sense. If we don't think you're going to win, we tell you. We're not interested in wasting your money: we want you to know where you stand and come back to us next time.

Fighting your corner

No one wants a fight. Arguments cost money. But sometimes, when the other side won't listen, you've got to take the gloves off. When it comes to protecting your interests, we won't hold back.

Know the law, know your market, know you

We're local. We put you first. You're one of us. So we get to know you and we only advise in areas of law that we know about.

Commercially-minded

We understand the economics, finances and pressures of business. So we handle your affairs from a commercial stance – keeping the costs in check and the end in sight.
